

The _____ Family's

Get Out of Debt Emergency Kit

Use when frustrated and tired of owing others, and are committed to the sacrifice required.

As you begin your journey to economic freedom, use the tools in this kit to give you some immediate and practical help. Afterwards, continue the process of financial freedom with the Practical Budgeting manual.

Debt Free Tools

Use Wisely and Consistently

Tool #1: Use the Credit Card Vault, attached to the back of this Kit, to deposit all but one Visa or Master Card credit card (for emergency use ONLY). Seal this vault with scotch tape over your signature and give it to a trusted friend who will not give them back to you under any circumstances until these creditors have been paid off and you are ready to send them back, canceling each particular account.

Use the sample Creditor Letter found in the Practical Budgeting manual.

Tool #2: Relax

Tool #3: Fear Not

Tool #4: Tithe – even through uncertainty.

Tool #5: Fear Not

Tool #6: Give – even through uncertainty.

Tool #7: Fear Not

Tool #8: Stop using credit cards. Period.

Tool #9: Fear Not

Tool #10: Locate your faith.

Tool #11: Fear Not

Tool #12: Cut back on expenses.

Tool #13: Fear Not

Tool #14: Give thanks for what you DO have.

Tool #15: Fear Not

Tool #16: Pay more than minimum Payments on debts.

Tool #17: Fear Not.

Tool #18: Some may trust in credit cards,
Some may trust in bank accounts,
But we will trust in the name of our God.
